MEET KIMBA

Ms. Williams is a writer, associate producer and production coordinator whose personal work leans towards comedy, with a focus in science fiction and fantasy. She earned her BFA in Creative Writing for Entertainment at Full Sail University – where she earned the Advanced Achievement Award for her dedication to excellence. She currently works at Blindlight as a production coordinator, narrative lead, and writer.

While there, she's coordinated with agents, worked on talent schedules, and communicated with clients throughout production. Ms. Williams also trained interns and coordinators, created call sheets, handled financial and confidential projects, and coordinated voice over sessions for use in AAA video games. Ms. Williams worked as a script supervisor and consultant on several projects that are currently in various stages of production.
